

QUEEN OF PEACE CENTER

...sustaining recovery for families in the community

Queen of Peace Center celebrates its 25th anniversary with a collaborative Art Exhibit entitled
"Faces And Voices Of Recovery"

Featuring artwork, poems and short audio recordings that illustrate or represent the theme of "Faces and Voices of Recovery" in a creative manner.

Images and works will focus upon the recovery aspect of addiction and co-occurring disorders to help change public perceptions of recovery.

"Faces & Voices of Recovery is America in all its diversity: moms and dads, sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, and friends of people regaining their health and lives through freedom from addiction. By organizing and speaking out together, we support and give hope to individuals who are still struggling with addiction and to those who have found the power of long-term recovery."

Opening reception is Wednesday, July 21, 4:00 -7:00pm

Northern Arts Council Gallery
27 South Florissant Road, Ferguson, MO 63135

This art exhibit will be held in conjunction with the 2010 Director's Creativity Showcase

Showcasing the talents and abilities of people with mental health issues sponsored by the Missouri Mental Health Foundation.
